

Eleanor O. Brinsko, MLIS/MM

Genealogy Educator and Researcher

- 20+ years of genealogical experience
- Presents on genealogical topics for the Wisconsin Historical Society and public libraries around the United States
- Teaches the genealogy course at the University of Wisconsin-Madison iSchool
- Specializes in Midwestern-American and Scandinavian genealogy
- Presents on Zoom and in-person!

Most requested interactive presentations:

- Genealogy 101: How to get started on your genealogical journey
- “Where did I put that?”: How to organize your genealogical research
- Roamin’ the Stacks: How to use libraries for your genealogical research
- Using Social Media to Enhance Your Genealogical Research
- “Oh it’s around here somewhere”: What is hiding in your storage that can help you with your genealogical searches?

Contact Information

608-516-1507

www.carlongenealogy.com

www.facebook.com/carlongenealogy

Check the website for more presentation topics!